

When Jesus died, the disciples felt sad, lost and lonely.

We are feeling similar emotions now.

Look at the pictures and write words to describe what you miss and who you miss.

Missing someone you can't visit is really difficult

The disciples really missed Jesus

Think about someone you are missing. Draw or write your thoughts in a thought bubble.

Then write down the words you would say to them when you see them again to show how you feel about them.

WHAT DO YOU MISS?

WHO DO YOU MISS?

